

WCIV-TV

WCIV-TV is the ABC television affiliate for the Charleston market. We produce 5 1/2 hours of local programming each day and offer positions from on-air journalists to production and technical staff.

Internship Description:

GOALS --

1. This academically oriented program is designed to provide students with professional experience in furtherance of their education and training. Interns are NOT employees of WCIV-TV.
2. The intern program is for the benefit of the interns rather than WCIV-TV and interns are trained under close supervision. Interns do not displace regular employees.

OBJECTIVE --

To offer up to three (3) News internships per semester or summer.

1. Duration: One semester, hours per week dependent upon credit hours. Hours will be determined based on the intern's areas of interest and class schedule.
2. Intern will learn about various news skills including the following by assisting the news staff in setting up news interviews, gathering facts and producing news stories, accompanying reporters on news stories, rehearsing reporter stand-ups, rehearsing studio sit-ins (off air), news writing, producing newscasts, setting up/breaking down lights, operating ENG equipment, ENG editing, operating TelePrompTer, and working the assignment desk.
3. Supervisor: Assistant News Director.

EVALUATION --

1. At the end of the internship, the supervisor will complete the WCIV-TV Internship Evaluation and review it with the intern. Evaluations may be sent to the intern's advisor, if requested by the academic institution.
2. The supervisor will also complete and submit any additional evaluation forms required by the academic institution.
