The Local Palate Magazine – Editorial Intern, Spring 2016

TLP is looking for mature, highly-capable individuals with strong writing skills. Seniors, recent graduates, and graduate students preferred. Interested individuals have to have the confidence to jump right into a fast-paced environment, possess the ability to identify the TLP voice and style, and immediately be ready to contribute to the team. This is an unpaid internship but we encourage school credit hours associated with the internship.

If interested in the spring internship, please contact Hayley Phillip, Assistant Editor, at hayley@thelocalpalate.com or 443.812.9300
