Communication Intern Position Available with Charleston County Teen Pregnancy Prevention Counsel!

Charleston County Teen Pregnancy Prevention Council (CCTPPC) mission is to reduce the number of teenage pregnancies each year through public education and advocacy, in order to improve the quality of life in the Charleston community. To achieve this mission, CCTPPC’s focus is to increase public awareness of the impact of teenage pregnancy on the adolescent, the family, and the community; to advocate public policy supporting the reduction of teenage pregnancies through making available medically accurate sexuality and prevention education; and to promote safe and equal access to pregnancy prevention services.

Responsibilities:
• Actively connect CCTPPC with social media (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram)
• Update the CCTPPC website
• Assistance with publicizing CCTPPC, including press releases and articles
• Participate in CCTPPC meetings on the second Tuesday of each month from 8am-9:15am.
• Assist with additional duties, as needed.

Requirements:
• Passion for comprehensive health and sexuality education
• Demonstrated experience with social media platforms
• Excellent writing and organizational skills and attention to detail

This is an unpaid communication internship. We will facilitate academic credit for internships and/or independent studies. Interns are expected to work at least 10 hours per week and attend CCTPPC meetings (via phone or in person). Interns will assist with the communication/public relations efforts of the CCTPPC.
