Maya Novak-Cogdell

Senior Maya Novak-Cogdell, a Spanish major and 2017 Honors College graduate, will enroll in the Ph.D. program in Hispanic Linguistics at the University of Texas at Austin this fall. During her senior year, she served as president of the College's chapter of the National Collegiate Hispanic Honor Society (Sigma Delta Pi). Novak-Cogdell was also a Ketner Scholar. Among the highlights of her time as a student at the College was a week's trip to Mexico City with a professor and classmates.

WORLD CULTURES FAIR

Despite overcast skies, the 9th Annual World Cultures Fair was held on on campus March 30, 2017. The aim of this event is to bring various cultures and traditions from around the world to the Charleston community. The event showcased international cultures with over 30 tables displaying crafts, foods and information about student clubs and international programs at the College. Learn more here.

GERMAN AMERICAN BUSINESS SUMMIT

The inaugural College of Charleston German-American Business Summit was held in February and was a huge success. Over 180 students attended along with well over 100 guests from industries and the Charleston community. German industries invest billions of dollars in the state of South Carolina and are responsible for 27,000 jobs here. That's why the Department of German and Russian Studies is pleased to announce that the second German-American Business Summit will take place February 8, 2018.
