Dear Faculty:

On Wednesday (10/22) at 3:30 p.m. in the Admissions Auditorium, a group of teachers and students from the Urban Studies Program will be conducting an unfocus group on teaching and learning. An unfocus group allows ideas and issues related to a topic to emerge organically, without a controlling and directed environment that usually characterizes focus group methodology. In this unfocus group, the topic will be teaching and learning. Students and teachers will be invited to simply talk about their experiences in these matters, with complaining, praising, frustrating, and articulating all o.k.

The unfocus group will be comprised of the following people:

Teachers

- Eleni Glekas, Urban Studies
- George Hopkins, History
- Tim Keane, Political Science
- Kevin Keenan, Political Science and Urban Studies
- Melinda Lucka, Urban Studies
- Nick Pergakes, Master of Public Administration Program and Urban and Regional Planning Graduate Certificate Program

Students

- Ben Tibbetts – Senior in Urban Studies
- Hope Brannon – 1st year in Urban Studies
- Sydnee Milleson - 1st Year in Political Science

Please consider attending and being part of this group. All are welcome. The goal is simply to talk about teaching and learning, to learn new insights, and perhaps to share some strategies too. The more voices, experiences, and ideas, the better!

Refreshments are provided via a grant from Academic Affairs.

Thank you.
