

African American Studies Student Art Competition

COLLEGE of CHARLESTON

AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES PROGRAM

Are you a student artist at the College of Charleston in search of new inspiration and an opportunity to showcase your work? Then the African American Studies Program has just the opportunity for you! Enter your work in the African American Studies Student Art Competition for a chance to win art materials and prominent display in the AAST office suite!

Requirements:

- This competition is open to currently enrolled CofC students only
- Artwork must be an original work of the student
- Entries must be in 2D Fine Art mediums (painting, drawing, printmaking, and/or photography).
- Original art work should be a minimum of 11 inches x14 inches and a maximum of 27inx40in in size.
- Entrants can submit up to five works for consideration.
- Artwork should be submitted as a high-resolution image of the original artwork in .jpg file format.
- Submission form must accompany each entry
- All entries must address some aspect/theme of the African Diaspora (culture, people, and/or places) broadly defined.
- Submissions must be received by March 25, 2019

Judging:

Entries will be evaluated based on originality, interpretation of subject matter/theme, creative techniques and overall art appearance. A panel of judges comprised of African American Studies Faculty and Affiliates will evaluate each entry and rank each. The entries with the highest rankings will receive the first and second place prize.

Prizes:

There will be a prize for first and second place winners. First place will receive $300 in art supplies via Amazon.com and permanent display in the AAST office suite; Second place will receive $200 in art supplies and permanent display in the AAST office suite. Entries may also receive Honorable Mention and the opportunity for permanent display in the AAST office suite.
